LIVELIHOOD INITIATIVES

LIVESTOCK SUPPORT

Livestock Support

- Sorted semen-based AI is being promoted to increase the birth of female calves, which are more valuable for milk production, thus boosting rural livelihoods.
- In Q2, 35 doses of sex-sorted artificial insemination were administered, benefiting 35 households.
- 10 female calves were born, and each cow now produces an average of 6 liters of milk daily, generating ₹6,000 per month for each household.

GOATERY AN EFFECTIVE LIVELIHOOD INTERVENTION

- The "Four Female Goat Model" was introduced as a focused intervention to enhance rural household incomes through goat farming.
- 50 marginal households were supported in starting their ventures.
- The anticipated annual income per household is ₹70,000 over two years.

GOAT DEWORMING AND VACCINATION CAMP

- Over 500 goats were dewormed that will result in lower the mortality rate of the goats.
- 100 households benefited from this intervention.

SAHELI GRAM PARIVARTAN SHG ASSOCIATION

- The Saheli Gram Parivartan SHG Association was formed through the federation of 10 SHGs to support women's microenterprise development and expansion.
- A grant of ₹4 lakh was provided to the Saheli Gram Parivartan SHG Association for microenterprise development.
- Currently, 29 women are benefiting from the association:
  - 15 women will open grocery shops and general stores.
  - 14 women will engage in dairy and goat farming activities.
